

Houston Middle School Band
Brad Turner, Director of Bands

February 5, 2010

Dear Students and Parents,

The recent snow days have caused the cancellation of several Jazz Band rehearsals and one Honor Band rehearsal. Unfortunately, this is beginning to have an adverse effect on our ability to be adequately prepared for upcoming performances and competitions. In order to attempt to make up for the snow days, beginning the week of February 15 through Spring Break, all Honor Band and Jazz Band practices will end at 4:00 instead of 3:30. Additionally, there may be a need to add some Jazz Band rehearsals.

I realize this may interfere with lessons and other extracurricular activities, but in order for us to perform at the highest level, we must add a little more time to each rehearsal. Please make every effort to adjust your schedules to accommodate the added 30 minutes. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Brad Turner
